Administration. Present each part on its own page; randomise the order of Parts 2 to 4 and of the items within each part. Replace [BRAND] with the brand the respondent named. Code answers 0 to 7 as shown; each dimension score is the mean of its items. Introduction and brand question are suggested wording; item wording and response format are as published.

Introduction

This survey is about the content related to brands that you come across on social media, such as Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, TikTok, X, blogs and online forums. People engage with this content in different ways: some read or watch it (consuming), some like, comment on or share it (contributing), and some post their own content about a brand (creating). There are no right or wrong answers.

Part 1. Your brand

Please type the name of a brand that you actively follow on social media.

You will answer the following questions about this brand. Wherever you see [BRAND], think of the brand you named.

Part 2. Consumption
